Office Action Summary

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1, 4, 14 drawn to a fuel cell with gas diffusion seats, classified in class 429, subclass 33.
 - II. Claims 2 and 3, drawn to an ion exchange resin, classified in class 521, subclass 33.
 - III. Claim 5, drawn to a method of making an ion exchange resin, classified in class 521, subclass 33.
 - IV. Claim 6, drawn to a process of producing a solid electrolyte, classified in class 427, subclass 115.
 - V. Claims 7-8, drawn to a polymer electrolyte, classified in class 429, subclass 30.
 - VI. Claims 9-11, drawn to a solution/paste, classified in class 429, subclass 40.
 - VII. Claims 12-13, drawn to a process of making an electrode assembly, classified in class 29, subclass 623.5.
 - VIII. Claim 15, drawn to a fuel cell power generating apparatus, classified in class 429, subclass 20.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons: Group I comprise a fuel cell with an electrolyte membrane that has gas diffusion seats provided thereon, which element is not part of any of the other product groups. Group III is distinct from both Groups IV and VII because Group III is directed to a polymerization process which is different than the coating processes of the other groups. Groups IV and VII are different because the same comprise materially steps of production; Group VII includes adhering two layers to opposite sides of the membrane, which step is not part of the Group IV process. The resin of Group II is different than the Group V electrolyte because the latter includes an additional sheet into which a part of the electrolyte is filled. The solution/paste of Group VI is distinct from the other Groups II, V, VIII because the same includes a solvent along with an electrode catalyst. Group VIII is different than the other product groups because this apparatus comprises a reformer, which element does not form part of any of the other product groups. The method Groups III, IV and VII are distinct from the other product Groups I, II, V, VI and VIII as distinguished by the recited methods and thus could be formed by such different methods.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

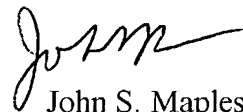

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

5. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to John S. Maples whose telephone number is 571-272-1287. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Thursday from 6:15-3:45.
